

Friday, April 11, 2014 8:30 p.m.

JONATHAN BUTLER

For more than 25 years, this South African native, whose expansive musical gift has earned accolades across the globe in the R&B, contemporary jazz and gospel fields, has toured the world with such acclaimed artists as Kirk Whalum, Dave Koz and Ruby Turner. He's earned GRAMMY® nominations and rave reviews in the jazz and R&B fields, but his gospel albums hold a special place in his heart. Butler's newest release, "Grace and Mercy," is filled with soulful sounds and insightful lyrics fans have come to expect from the veteran performer.

Elsie H. Hillman Auditorium at Kaufmann Center

1825 Centre Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Advance Purchase: $70 VIP Ticket/$55/$35

At The Door: $60/$40 (no VIP sales)

www.showclix.com • 1-888-718-4253

VIP Reception: 6:00-7:00 p.m. Kaufmann Center Courtyard

Hors d'oeuvres: Bar Marco; Delectable Desserts: Culinary Cravings by Jay Obertance; Specialty Vodka Cocktails: Boyd & Blair

KEVIN HOWARD OPENING ACT • 7:30 p.m.

A Pittsburgh native, Kevin Howard is a world-class keyboardist, writer, composer, producer and businessman. Having toured with musical legend Ronnie Laws, Kevin also recorded and performed with saxophonist Marion Meadows, Norman Connors, Lonnie Liston Smith, Najee and Pittsburgh's own George Benson. In addition, he has shared the stage with Roy Ayers, Pieces of a Dream, Joe McBride and John Legend.

