

Monday, May 19, 2014 7:30 p.m.

WIL HAYGOOD

In collaboration with Pittsburgh Arts & Lectures, Hill House presents award-winning journalist Wil Haygood, author of The Butler and chronicler of the struggle for civil rights. Wil Haygood recounts his quest to tell the story of Eugene Allen, the White House butler who ignited a nation's imagination and inspired a major motion picture, Lee Daniel's The Butler. Mr. Haygood functioned as the Associate Producer of The Butler, is a regular writer for The Washington Post, and in 2013 was awarded a National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship. Books will be available for purchase from Mystery Lovers Bookshop.

Byham Theater

101 6th Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Tickets can be purchased online at pittsburghlectures.org or by phone at 412-622-8866

VIP (includes Reception with Wil Haygood): $55

First Floor: $23

Mezzanine & Gallery: $15

